

Cancer Research in Northern Ireland: Creating a Brighter Future Together

Tuesday 26 March 2018
Postgraduate Lecture Theatre
Belfast City Hospital, 4.30pm-6.30pm

4.30pm Welcome

Margaret Grayson, Chairperson, NI Cancer Research Consumer Forum

A Celebration of Personal and Public Involvement in Cancer Research in NI and Future Plans

Margaret Grayson, Chairperson, NI Cancer Research Consumer Forum and Ruth Boyd, Cancer Research UK Senior Nurse

Breast Cancer Research in Northern Ireland and Beyond...

Mr Stuart McIntosh, Clinical Senior Lecturer, QUB, Consultant Breast Surgeon, Belfast HSC Trust, Acting Clinical Director NI Cancer Trials Network

How Laboratory Research can Unlock the Path to Personalised Medicine in Bowel Cancer

Dr Philip Dunne, Lecturer in Early Cancer Detection, Centre for Cancer Research and Cell Biology, Queen's University Belfast

Panel Question and Answer Session - *Mr Stuart McIntosh, Dr Philip Dunne, Mrs Hazel Carson, NI
Cancer Research Consumer Forum/BRCA LINK NI, Dr Sandra Irvine, NI Cancer Research Consumer
Forum*

5.20pm Refreshments and Information Stands

*BHSCT Personal and Public Involvement, Cancer Research UK, Friends of the Cancer Centre, HSC R&D
Division, Leukaemia & Lymphoma NI, Macmillan Information and Support Centre, NI Biobank, NI Cancer
Research Consumer Forum, NI Cancer Trials Network, OGCancerNI*

How Prostate Cancer Research is Transforming Treatment in Northern Ireland

Dr Philip Turner, Clinical Oncology Specialist Registrar, NI Cancer Centre

A Licence to Live - a carer's perspective

Mrs Kate Burns, NI Cancer Research Consumer Forum

Coping with Cancer - support for carers

Dr Olinda Santin, Lecturer, School of Nursing and Midwifery, Queen's University Belfast

Panel Question and Answer Session - *Dr Philip Turner, Mrs Kate Burns, Dr Olinda Santin, Mr Ken
McBride, NI Cancer Research Consumer Forum, Dr Melanie Morris, NI Cancer Trials Network*

Closing Remarks

Margaret Grayson, Chairperson, NI Cancer Research Consumer Forum

6.30pm Close